WHITESBURG, LETCHER COUNTY, KENTUCKY, THURSDAY EVENING, MARCH 14, 1946.

NUMBER 36.

Representative To Assist In Filing Income Tax Returns

A concerted effort is being made by the State Department of Revenue to encourage the filing of Kentucky income tax returns before April 15th after which date returns will become delinquent thus subjecting the taxpayers to severe penalties.

In addition to the Frankfort office and the local offices at Louisville, Lexington, Covington, Paducah, and Ashland, field representatives have been assigned to every section of the state for the purpose of assisting those who need help in preparing their returns. Mr. T. H. Hickey will be in Whitesburg on March 18th to assist those needing help in the locality.

The department calls attention of taxpayers to the fact that more than $200,000 in taxes and penalties have been collected, during recent months, from taxpayers who had failed to file returns for prior years and, therefore, urges taxpayers to avail themselves of this opportunity as the payment of penalties and unnecessary inconvenience and embarrassment might later be avoided.

Residents of Kentucky are required to report their entire income regardless of the source. Thus, in addition to all income from Kentucky sources, resident individuals must report all income from personal services performed outside of Kentucky and from property and other sources located outside of this state. A non-resident is required to report all income from personal services performed in Kentucky in addition to all income from property or other sources in this state.

Returns are required of single individuals (including those who qualify as "head-of-family") who have a gross income of $1500 or more or a net income of $1000 or more. Married individuals are required to file if their combined gross income amounts to $3000 or more or if they have a net income of $2500 or more. Single individuals are entitled to a personal exemption of $1000; however, a single person qualifying as "head-of-family" is entitled to a personal exemption of $2500. Single individuals are entitled to a personal exemption of $1000; however, a single person qualifying as "head-of-family" is entitled to a personal exemption of $2500. Single individuals are entitled to a personal exemption of $1000; however, a single person qualifying as "head-of-family" is entitled to a personal exemption of $2500.

The Kentucky law provides for allowance of $400 for each dependent under 18 years of age or for a dependent over 18 years of age who is physically or mentally incapable of self-support. Such dependents must receive more than 50 per cent of their support from the taxpayer claiming the exemption.

Wright Motor Co. Displays New Cars

At Neon Junction this week we had the privilege of looking over two new cars, a Chrysler and an Oldsmobile now on display at the Wright Motor Co., Mr. Jesse Wright, Manager. These new cars rank with the best makes of motor vehicles and come within the $1400-$1500 price range.

NOTICE

Truck licenses have been received and are now on sale at the County Court Clerk's Office.

John D. Collins, 65 Is Called by Death

On Monday of this week Mr. John D. Collins, 65 years of age and retired merchant of Whitesburg, passed away at the Fleming hospital after a serious illness of about three weeks. Mr. Collins had been in failing health for quite some time but hope was held for his recovery for a time after his removal to the hospital. He was first taken to the Hazard Hospital and later brought back to Fleming where he could be near his family.

Mr. Collins was one of Letcher county's best loved citizens, always being of a friendly and accommodating nature, living by the Golden Rule, and had been a successful merchant until about one year ago when his health forced him to retire.

Mr. Collins was always kind and generous to those in need and was always ready to lend a helping hand. He will be sadly missed by all who knew him.

He is survived by four sons and two daughters, all of Letcher county. Funeral services were held at the Kona Baptist Church on Wednesday, and burial took place in the family cemetery near Colson, Ky. Craft Funeral Home in charge. We extend sincere sympathies to all the bereaved family and friends.

L&N To Build Double Track To Mayking

We are informed this week that the L&N R. R. plans to extend a double track from Whitesburg to Mayking. According to information given out the new track will be used for passenger service only. The grading is now being done and work will be finished by early summer.

TIME CHANGES

At the first meeting of the present Fiscal Court, held on January 22nd, 1946, the proposition of trying to change the time in the county was brought up, so that all of the county would be on the same time and thus prevent a lot of confusion. This Fiscal Court at that time went on record as adopting, so far as it was concerned, Eastern Standard Time for all of Letcher County. Since that time all kinds of confusion has resulted. Some people still cling to Central Standard Time and some preferred to adopt fast time. The bus companies and the L&N Railroad Company did not go along with the change—thus was created quite a bit more confusion than we already had. Criticism came from all sections of the county. Some school children who had to walk some little distance in order to get a school bus were forced to leave home before daylight in many instances. The criticism was so severe that at the meeting of the Fiscal Court held on March 12th quite a number of people appeared before the Fiscal Court and protested. The Fiscal Court after hearing their pleas entered an order rescinding the former order as to placing all of Letcher County on Eastern Standard Time. There will probably be some criticism as to this latter order, but it is our understanding that time changes should be made by the Legislature or some Federal agency and not by Fiscal Courts. So insofar as the Letcher Fiscal Court is concerned, Letcher County will return to Central Standard Time at 12:01 A. M. March 17, 1946.

Services of Red Cross Needed Overseas

(Endorsement by Geo. C. Marshall, General of the Army)

Although the great war is at an end, the overseas services of the Red Cross are as important today as they were at the peak of the fighting. From Europe to Asia, and throughout the Western Pacific, American troops today are serving their country to determine whether we are to win or lose the peace.

Such service is trying and difficult for our men. They long to return home. The patriotic appeal of the war no longer inspires the soldier. His life has become a monotonous routine and it is hard for him to comprehend the importance of his particular mission to the future of America and the world.

In this situation, the Red Cross has an extremely difficult and vital role to perform. More than three thousand of its field Representatives are now operating installations in the occupied countries to provide recreation and welfare services for our soldiers. It is imperative that this work continue. I urge that our citizens contribute generously to make it possible for the Red Cross to carry on this important work for the men of the Armed Forces who are serving their country far from home.

Blasting Cap Explodes Injures M'Rob'ts Boy

A report coming from McRoberts states that Charles Elkins, 16, of that place was seriously injured by the explosion of a mining cap a few days ago. According to the report young Elkins lost an eye and three fingers as a result of the blast. He was taken to the Jenkins Hospital for treatment.

Mr. E. J. Berlin of Jenkins was a business visitor in the County Seat Wednesday.

Law Prohibiting Sabbath-Breaking To Be Enforced

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Section 436.160 of the Kentucky Revised Statutes provides as follows:

"Any person who works on Sunday at his own or at any other occupation or employs any other person, in labor or other business, whether for profit or amusement, unless his work or the employment of others is in the course of ordinary household duties, work of necessity or charity or work required in the maintenance or operation of a public service or public utility plant or system, shall be fined not less than two dollars nor more than fifty dollars. The employment of every person employed in violation of this subsection shall be deemed a separate offense."

God's law also provides that the Sabbath Day shall be kept and observed. "Six days shalt thou work and do all thy labor." During the war emergency merchants in many sections of the county opened their stores and sold merchandise on Sunday. The war is now over and the county officials of Letcher County feel that the violation of this law should no longer be tolerated. Therefore, the public is hereby notified that the law prohibiting sabbath breaking will henceforth be strictly enforced. We feel it only fair to give this warning before starting prosecutions, and will appreciate the cooperation of all good citizens of the county. So long as this section of the statutes remains a law we feel that it is our sworn duty to see that it is enforced the same as any other law. If it is an unfair law, then it should be repealed. We did not make the law, but so long as it is a law it should be enforced.

Yours for a better and cleaner Letcher County,

Annual 4-H Officers And Leaders Conference Held

Letcher County 4-H Leaders and Officers held a training conference together with a banquet in the Presbyterian Church, Friday, March 9th.

D. W. Little, Miss Edith Lacy, (Girls 4-H Leader, Dick Evans, Boyd Wheeler, Myrel Brown and Corbett Lovely, County Agent, delivered talks on the importance of 4-H Club work in the County. The ladies of the Presbyterian Church prepared a delicious meal for the 124 visitors and guests who were present.

Several 4-H Clubs were represented by officer 4H boys and girls and leaders, namely: Seco, Ermine, Blackey, Marlowe, Little Cowan, Cumberland Valley, Tolliver Town, McRoberts, Mayking, Kona, Jeremiah, Whitesburg, and Blairs Branch. Other clubs might have also been present.

Club members and leaders were delighted to have the Lions Club and Rotary Club present at the banquet and to participate in the program. The morning part of the program was devoted to singing, games and classes for officers and leaders. County 4-H officers were chosen in the afternoon. Gergetta Collins was chosen president; Faye Sumpter, vice-president; Christine Branson, news reporter and secretary; and Cheer Leaders were Oma Jo Dixon, Anna Lee Sturgill, Clea Bentley, and Catherine Casolari. Myrel Brown was Chairman of this very successful event.

The banquet was sponsored by the 4-H Council of Letcher County.

Reed E. Cromer, FSA Supervisor was among the visitors present.

Dr. Bach and Mrs. Bach Purchase New Home
Dr. and Mrs. B. C. Bach purchased this week the beautiful new stone home, built by Mr. and Mrs. Noble Wright in the Letcher Heights. They expect to move within a few days.

Former Letcher Countian Marries

Mr. Stoney Collins, recently discharged from the Navy and formerly of Whitesburg, pleasantly surprised his friends here last week when he proudly presented his wife. They were visiting his relatives here after spending their honeymoon in several scenic parts of Kentucky.

They will reside in Somerset, Ky., where Mr. Collins is employed as a mechanic.

Truman Appeals To American Papers To Help On Food

Washington, Mar. 10.—Campaign to persuade Americans to reduce their abundant diet so that other peoples may eat enough to live has gone into high gear.

President Truman has appealed to American newspapers to back the drive and former President Herbert Hoover announces that whatever food we send overseas will go where it is needed most. When President Truman appointed Hoover to head the food conservation program, left wing elements protested, charging that as food administrator after the last war, Mr. Hoover had played politics.

But tonight, in an answer to this criticism, the former President says:

"American relief food will be distributed to starving peoples abroad without differential as to race, religion or political belief"

Rev. J. S. Bell Named Director of Clear Creek Camps

Louisville, Ky., March 8.—The Rev. J. S. Bell, Hindman, Ky., missionary in the mountains, under the Baptist State Mission Board, has been named as director of the Kentucky Baptist Boys' and Girls' Camps at Clear Creek Mountain Springs, Pineville, Ky. This announcement was made by Dr. Marvin Adams, Middlesboro, Ky., chairman of the Clear Creek Board of Control.

Baptists have sponsored camps at Clear Creek for fourteen years. There has been a total of 7,316 attending these camps, with 898 conversions. Many have answered the call for definite service in religious work.

The Reverend Bell stated that the Camps would be held from June 19-July 16, about 1,200 are expected to attend.

J. Estill Jones, Louisville, has been secured as director of recreation for the summer at Clear Creek. Mr. Jones has been authorized to purchase more equipment, and he states that more activities will be added.

English Grandstand Disaster Toll Is 33

London, March 9.—Death toll in Britain's gravest peacetime disaster has mounted to 33. A score of persons were injured when the main grandstand at an English soccer match collapsed, many of the 65,000 spectators tumbled through the stands into a screaming, milling mass.

The soccer match was resumed just a half hour after the tragedy occurred and order was restored.

A. J. May Reveals He Will Seek Re-election

Washington, March 12.—Congressman A. J. May of Prestonsburg, Ky., announced today that he would be a candidate for re-election to the House of Representatives.

The announcement coming from Mr. May, sets at rest two rumors concerning his future plans. One rumor was that he would be a candidate for the Senate; the other was that he would step out of public life.

It was the second rumor which brought forth May's announcement of his candidacy.

THURSDAY, MARCH 14, 1946

Under the present constitution of Kentucky only males can vote. Yet women have been using the ballot since 1920.

There will be strong pressure in the next constitutional convention to streamline the Legislative machinery of Kentucky. The present set-up has been changed little since the state was admitted into the Union.

Kentucky has more than twice as many counties as New York and Pennsylvania combined. We have one-seventh the population of those two states. But reducing Kentucky's number of counties to fifty or sixty is merely something to hope for eventually.
Governor Chandler proposed as an economy measure, combining many of the poorer and less populous counties, but he soon learned that the idea was futile, at least in this generation.

Fifty per cent of the tenant farmers in the state move every year. Many of these move to get better houses to live in.
They get tired of putting wash-pans on their beds when it rains and of baking one side of their bodies and freezing the other side in cold weather.

In 1940 forty per cent of the farm homes in Kentucky needed major repairs—now 50 per cent are in a bad fix.

Dean Cooper of the University of Kentucky says 90 per cent of the farm homes in the state lack convenient sources of water. That means they don't have first-rate, sanitary wells in their back porches or backyard wells with cinder walks to them.

Twenty-five per cent of the farms in Kentucky are supposed to have electricity.
Maybe that's a slight exaggeration. But the Electric Utilities Administration has done as much for agriculture in the last ten years as any other factor in rural progress.

And the REA is all set to connect up thousands of farms as soon as material is available.
Extensions were suspended altogether during the war.

Isolation resulting from bad roads does more to hold back remote rural districts than anything else. Not long ago I drove through some of the mountain counties, on paved roads, mostly. Most of the towns and good sized villages had modern school buildings.
In little villages there were well dressed, intelligent looking boys and girls. Transfer these youngsters to Fifth Avenue in New York or State Street in Chicago and nobody could tell they were from rural eastern Kentucky. But the trunkline roads touch not more than twenty per cent of the population in those counties. Back on the dirt roads many children have no schools to go to, and hundreds of school buildings are unfit for use.

The upping of the rural school tax limit from 75 cents per $100 worth of assessed property to $1.50 will help elementary education in the state. It is a long step in the progress hoped for by good citizens everywhere. But better roads must come to isolated districts before they can have good schools, more doctors and preachers, more dentists and home demonstration agents. Civilization moves on wheels.

When it comes to pushing the plan to provide money to finance Kentucky's institutions as they should be financed, the old, old fear of tax repercussions back home makes some State Senators and Representatives pauper-minded.

It is this pinch-penny policy that has done more than anything else to keep Kentucky near the tail end of the list of states. It takes money to make the mare trot, and the Legislature, ever since I was tall as a nail keg at our village store, has been giving the old gal just enough hay to enable her to walk.

Senate Committee Refuses Approval Of Case Strike Bill

Washington, March 4.—The Senate Labor Committee has refused to approve Case anti-strike bill which was passed by an overwhelming vote in the House. Committee Chairman Jas. Murray said the Committee had expressed sentiment against enacting drastic legislation that would "penalize or straight-jacket" labor.
The Senator said he is appointing a sub-committee to study a series of labor-regula-that he was prepared to send the disapproved Case bill to the floor of the Senate without Committee amendments as an answer to charges that his Committee is pocket-

FLORIDA FARMS
Two million acres of farms in Florida produce cotton, tobacco, sugar cane, tung oil, grains, citrus fruits and vegetables valued at $28,000,000 annually. Only 6 per cent of the land is cultivated in the state, leaving vast acreage to be developed and furnish additional national wealth. Increased post-war recreation activity will also contribute to the Nation's resources shared by investors in Savings Bonds.

Who Will Be Able To Stand

When on the day of Judgment,
We stand before the King,
There to give a strict account for each and every thing.
I really now am wondering,
If many will not hear,
"Depart, I never knew you."
Who now, don't seem to fear.

God really knows, about us.
We cannot, hide from Him.
He looks, down deep, in every heart.
He knows our every sin.
And when, we stand before
Him,
Some, folks will be surprised.
To know, that all, their wickedness,
Was open to, His eyes.

This world has grown so wicked,
A precious few, will stand.
And in, the final Judgment,
Be placed, at God's right hand.
But many, many millions,
Will hear "Depart from me."
Who now seem to be, content Their doom too late, they will see.

I have always, let my conscience
Be, my only guide.
And since I was, converted,
Out on a limb,
I have prayed to God, to guide me.

And at the Judgment day,
I expect to hear, "Well done
my servant
You have been faithful all the way."

I cannot think it will be long Till we stand, before His throne,
There to give a strict account
For all that we have done.
I want my record to be clear,
My sins all left behind.
Though life has been a struggle here
Peace, at last I will find.

Behind the Scenes in American Business

—by John Craddock—

New York, March 11—Reports of the large industrial companies for 1945 show that income declined from the level of the preceding year. A compilation of returns from 745 leading manufacturing corporations indicates a decline of two percent in net income, according to the National City Bank of New York.

However, the figures for the full year do not reveal the size of the decrease in income for the final months of the year. Reconversion from war to peace was an expensive operation for many companies, both because machinery had to be changed or replaced and because production declined sharply or ceased in some instances. The City Bank summary reveals that the meat packing industry had the sharpest decline in net income, a decrease of nearly 26 percent. Some industries showed gains. Beverage makers whose reconversion problem was minor reported an increase of 27.3 percent and textile producers as much as 20.8 percent. Manufacturers of agricultural implements, electrical equipment, machinery, metal products and rubber all showed declines in the aggregate, according to the bank summary.

REVOLUTION IN RUBBER

—This country probably will use 900,000 tons of rubber this year, a new all-time high, and 70 percent of it will be of the man-made variety. That's the estimate made in the B. F. Goodrich Company's annual report, which explains that the continuing high rate of dependence on synthetic, even now that the Far East rubber lands have long since been liberated, will be necessary because natural rubber will not be available in large volume as rapidly as had been expected.

The report, signed by Chairman David M. Goodrich and President John L. Collier, emphasized the "truly revolutionary nature" of the change-over that the war brought, by pointing out that in 1940, out of then-record American consumption of 650,000 tons only 2,000 tons—three-tenths of one percent—was synthetic; whereas in 1945 a new record consumption of 800,000 tons was attained and of this the percentage of synthetic was 67.

THINGS TO COME—Electrically heated rugs for the rooms of invalids and babies . . . An electric alarm clock connected with springs on the bed. It rings until the sleeper awakens and gets out of bed, when the springs rise and automatically cut off the current . . . A tree paint which is said to heal tree wounds in about two-thirds the usual time. It is easy to apply, will not freeze, is durable and has strong adhesive qualities . . . A new fishing pole for fly-fishing. It has an automatic re-wind trigger which can be tripped quickly covering long line. Both frame and spool are of one-piece aluminum alloy . . . Westinghouse's new selenium rectifier is said to turn alternating current into direct current with efficiency equal to that obtained by regular direct current service. The instrument is a metal container in which a mineral element, selenium, is suspended in oil. The whole unit is hermetically sealed and is impervious to extremes of heat and cold . . . A portable buzz saw which will cut an 11-inch log or tree at one pass.

EMPLOYEE PROTECTION

—American industry is now providing for its workers a much fuller measure of day-by-day protection against economic hazards of illness, disability, old age and death. Gathering momentum during the war years, the trend continues toward comprehensive planning for worker security with mutual benefits accruing to labor and industry, worker and boss. A case in point, Schenley Distillers Corporation, whose Retirement and Benefit Plan provides retirement income at no cost to the worker in addition to life insurance and inclusive medical care protection, announces substantial increases in hospitalization, surgical, accident and sickness benefits with no additional contributions by employees. In the two years since, the Schenley plan was established, $325,000 in medical care benefits and $244,600 in death claims have been paid while 58 veteran employees were retired with provision for life incomes. Insurance provisions of the plan cover 7,941 employees with a total of $36,456,390 worth of life insurance in force.

BITS O' BUSINESS—Wool stockpiles fill the warehouses. Commercial stocks in the U. S. amounted to about 850 million pounds (greasy basis) at the end of 1945, or a two-year supply. Great Britain has a surplus of about four billion lbs. as much as the world produces in a year. Foreign wools undersell home-grown fleeces despite the import duty . . . Cotton presents a different story. The prewar surplus, which worried the government shrank during the war years. Estimates are the surplus will be less than two million bales by mid-year, in contrast to 11.4 million bales in 1939. July 31 supplies will probably be only 7.2 million bales against 11.2 million a year ago . . . The scramble to buy South Texas sorghum grain four months before harvest time reflects the livestock feed scarcity. Buyers are contracting to pay the ceiling price "whatever it is" at time of delivery . . . The Veterans Administration wants GI reemployment rights clarified. They are contained in the Selective Service Act which expires May 15 . . . The travel jam continues with reservations for airways, railroads and hotels still difficult to get less than 10 days in advance.

Elders Elza Kiser and Charlie Kiser conducted the services. Miss Margaret Clay is visiting with her sister Mrs. Jessie Hicks.

Mr. Charlie Proffitt is confined to his bed at this writing. He has been suffering from a stroke of paralysis.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Proffitt were the guests of Mr. Jim Niece, Sunday.

In Washington, London and lesser allied capitals are demanding action, an explanation of why Russia has failed to live up to the Big Three promise that oil-rich Iran would be evacuated of all foreign troops by March 2, tonight. True Russian troops have begun to pull out of the capital of the northern province, the center of the civil strife within the country, but they still are garrisoned in small villages, spread out through the land.

Stuart Robinson School Highlights

Our February Rotary speaker on Vocational Guidance was Judge Lewis E. Harvie, ex-county judge of Letcher county. Judge Harvie gave a splendid speech about the civil side of law, since that is where his central interests lie. We appreciated having Judge Harvie with us very much. Our March Rotary speaker for the last Wednesday is Mr. Bill Heermans.

Rev. W. L. Cooper spent three days at The Highland Institution during the past week end. Mr. Cooper reports that all is going well at Highland, especially the poultry project there. He brought back several hundred eggs for our use, to prove it.

Mr. and Mrs. Hobson went south Carolina, Friday, March 8. They were accompanied by Mrs. Florence Ackers, who thought this was a grand opportunity for her to have a visit with homefolks. Mrs. Ackers' home is in Anderson.

A "shower" was given for Mrs. Joe Back, of Blackey, Kentucky, Friday, March 8, on the Stuart Robinson Faculty who attended the shower were, Mrs. W. L. Cooper, Mrs. A. S. Maxwell, Miss Florence Gray, Miss Margaret McNeill, Miss Mary L. Ervine, Miss Christine Ghiselin and Miss Julia Dixon.

Let's Tackle Inflation While We Can

You don't want your dollars to buy less and less and less!

You don't want your savings to melt away! Or the value of your life insurance to dwindle!

Yet that is what inflation can do to all of us. Therefore, thoughtful people everywhere are concerned with ways to smother it before it gets out of hand.

One major cause of inflation is a shortage of goods when people have money to spend for things they want.

That cause can be eliminated by the production of goods—fast—in quantity.

BUT THERE'S A BOTTLENECK

During the war there wasn't enough labor and materials to meet the needs of war and still produce all the civilian goods people wanted and could buy.

Therefore price controls on civilian goods were substituted for competition to keep prices down.

Today this country has all the labor and materials necessary to turn out the things people want.

Yet goods are still scarce. Store shelves are still bare. The national pocketbook continues to bulge. Inflation grows.

LET'S SMOTHER INFLATION...A postcard addressed to the National Association of Manufacturers, 14 West 49th Street, New York 20, N. Y., will bring you copy of a booklet explaining in detail why price controls cause inflation.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF MANUFACTURERS

★ For a Better Tomorrow for Everybody ★

Why? Because price controls in peacetime hinder the production of goods. Business cannot live by producing at a loss. And so, goods that can't be made to sell at the prices fixed by the government just don't get made.

Nor will the raising of price ceilings solve the problem. When costs and selling prices are subject to change at any moment by government action, production has to be on a day-to-day basis.

That means uncertainty . . . reduced output . . . more inflation.

ISN'T THIS THE ANSWER?

Remove price controls on manufactured goods and production will step up fast.

Goods will then pour into the market and, within a reasonable time, prices will adjust themselves naturally—as they always have—in line with the real worth of things.

Competition has never failed to produce this result.

This is the way you can get the goods you want at prices you can afford to pay.

Please think this over. Then tell your representatives in Congress what you believe should be done. You owe it to yourself . . . and to your country's welfare.

Senior Play Highly Entertaining

"He Was a Gay Senorita" a three-act comedy presented by the Senior Class on Tuesday night and Wednesday afternoon in the school auditorium proved to be highly entertaining. The characters were well chosen and each played his part to the satisfaction of the audience. Owen Adams as the serious and dignified father, who wanted his son, Charles Hall, to marry a daughter of a wealthy friend from South America. Objecting to this parent-made marriage young Hall, plans with a friend, Ralph Whitson, to have "Whitson" take the role of a gay Senorita and disapprove the father's mind of the advisability of such a marriage. Whitson in the double role of friend and Gay Senorita played the part well and kept the audience highly amused. The parts of the servants, played by Rachel Combs and Ezrie Reed, in Irish brogue and role were well done. Also Billie Paul Frazier, as chauffeur deserves special mention. The young ladies taking parts were Kathryn Back, Esther Hall, Betty Jo Little, Ethel Standifer and Jean Polly, all of whom portrayed their parts quite well. The doctor's role, which was done by Fernon Monsgrove, was excellent. The proceeds from the play will be used to defray the expenses of the Senior Class to Washington, D. C. in April. The play may be given in other schools if arrangements are completed. The Senior Class is indebted to Miss Eileen Salver who directed the play and gave her evening's work to meet with them and work up this play during the month of February. Much thanks is extended to her for this favor and great interest which she has shown to the boys and girls of this class.

Program of 4-H Club Work in 1946

The following is a report given by Mr. Myrel Brown at the 4-H Banquet, which is a summary of the activities and accomplishments in 1945:

The 4-H Rally Day was held in May with 150 members attending. Eighty-nine girls entered the style show, salad-ing garments that was made by the individual.

Forty-one members attended camp in July. The School board furnished the bus and the 4-H Council paid for the gasoline. The members all heartily agree that this was a most educational and helpful work.

The Kiwanis Club of Jenkins awarded last year, and for several years previously, $80 to the club members for garden prizes.

4-H Achievement Day was held in September with 650 people attending. Fourteen clubs participated in five minute programs. Twenty-six windows were placed in Whitesburg with 51 girls exhibiting canned goods. Mrs. Nolan contributed $20 for canning prizes. The Lions Club collected $556.25 to finance windows.

District Achievement Day was held at Quicksand in October with 4 4-H champions from Letcher County attending: Wilma Faye Sumpter, County canning champion, received a blue ribbon in recognition of her canning achievements; Georgetta Collins, County style review champion, was also awarded a blue ribbon, and Irene Mullins County garden champion, received a red ribbon.

The Blackey 4-H Club was county champion club and also District champion, receiving a prize of $10 for county and $25 for the district. Little Cowan was second best club in the County and also won a prize from the Power Company.

4-H Club Play Day was held in June with 200 4-H members and parents attending. This was voted an annual event.

There were 50 clubs in 1945 with 212 members enrolled with each taking one or more projects.

The 4-H Leaders and Officers conference was held with 89 officers and leaders attending from the various clubs.

U. K. GETS HOUSING FOR 300 VETERANS

The addition of barracks, designed for 300 single students, and 50 living units for married veterans, to be added to those in Cooperstown, will make new housing facilities available soon for students at the University of Kentucky.

The barracks which were allocated to the University by the Federal Housing Administration, will be partitioned into 12 suites each, with two men living in a suite.

Work on water, sewer, and heat lines will be started before the barracks reach the campus.

The barracks are a temporary means of easing the critical housing shortage at the University of Kentucky.

Married veterans are provided with 200 prefabricated homes and the 50 more will be brought to the campus soon.

The University has contracted with the Ford Willow Run plant for 100 additional prefabricated houses, which will bring the total of those living units in Cooperstown to 350.

Recipe of the Week

Using cereals other than wheat, such as those made from corn, oats and rice is recommended to housewives as one means of saving food for the starving peoples of the world. In place of toast for breakfast, have fried cornmeal mush, once a week and substitute spoonbread for hot rolls at lunch or supper. Home Economists at the Kentucky College of Agriculture and Home Economics suggest this recipe.

Spoon Bread

3 cups milk
1 cup cornmeal
1 teaspoon baking powder
1-2 teaspoons salt
3 tablespoons melted fat
3 eggs

While 2 cups of milk are heating, add salt and baking powder to the cornmeal, then the cold milk, beaten milk, beaten egg yolks and melted fat. Add hot milk to the mixture and fold in the well beaten egg whites. Pour into a buttered baking dish and bake in a moderately hot oven, 375 degrees, for 45 minutes, stirring carefully, a time or two during the first 15 minutes of baking.

Red Cross Month

By The President of The United States of America
A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS the American National Red Cross, under the provisions of its Congressional charter, continues to fulfill its manifold obligations to extend cheer and aid to our servicemen in distant areas overseas, to provide servicemen and veterans, and wounded and sick in hospitals, with solace and a link with home, and to maintain its traditional services of aiding victims of catastrophe, and of training men and women of our nation to combat sickness and accident and thus to reduce suffering and death; and

WHEREAS new obligations have arisen to assist veterans and their families in the many difficult problems of return to civilian life and resumption of long-interrupted normal peacetime relations, and to contribute to the care of peoples in areas devastated by military operations, whose distress appeals with utmost urgency to every source of help for months ahead; and

WHEREAS at this time when the foundations of peace are being established, the American National Red Cross by its very nature and purpose, and by its long record of humanitarian service, stands both as symbol and as tangible expression of the spirit of universal good will, recognizing no barriers in the unity of human welfare; and

WHEREAS this organization, which represents the solicitude of our people for the care of its servicemen and its lofty ideals for the prevention of suffering, and which is entirely dependent on voluntary contributions to carry out its purposes, is issuing its nationwide appeal for the contribution of a minimum fund of $100,000,000.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, HARRY S. TRUMAN, President of the United States of America, and President of the American National Red Cross, do hereby designate the month of March 1946 as Red Cross Month, and urge every citizen of this country to respond to the utmost of his ability in support of this indispensable humanitarian cause.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this fourteenth day of February, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and forty-six, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and seventieth.

In Memory of Our Loving Father ELI WATTS

We wonder, oh we wonder,
Why he was taken away;
From the ones that loved him
dearly,
More than anyone can see.

He was such a loving Father,
He was honest, true and kind,
But God called him up to Heaven.

Left his children here behind.

Well he sure has done his duty Always taught his children right,
Since he's gone we all do miss
him.

In our lonely hours tonight.

May our Good Lord be with us
Help us on our Journey way
And when our life on earth is over,

We'll be with him in heaven
to stay.
Our loving father from us is gone,
The voice we loved so well,
The place's are empty in our home,
That never can be filled.

RIDS HERSELF OF RINGWORM . . . GETS HERSELF A RING

Ringworm raised my complexion, disposition, and joy in living. I was previously a confirmed old maid, when I found I was "ringwormed." I tried LODORAL for that unsightly skin trouble. I used LODOAL with only four days because I had been disappointed by other products so many times. But in two weeks I was unringwormed of ringworm, eruptions of my forehead, face of life and confidence. New Bob and I are headed for the stars. LODOAL, credit to my boyfriend.

LODOAL works because it is the only known disinfectant containing chlorine dioxide and resorcinol, two of the most widely used ingredients of salicylic acid, and tinea ringworm, impetigo, industrial dermatitis, and many other skin troubles with effective relief that cause itching, irritation, burning, blotchy red spots, etc.

LET THE HOME COME FIRST

Exclusive Design of Monthly Small House Club, Inc.

The slightly formal line of Georgian colonial architecture contributes to the dignity of this home one of the new Post War Series of All American Homes selected from the exclusive designs of the Monthly Small House Club. It is of center hall construction with expansive living room. The main floor is completed by covered porch, dining room, kitchen and powder room. Three bedrooms and two baths plus large closets are on the second floor. The electrical layout of this house has been checked by the National Adequate Wiring Bureau; it is designed to comply with FHA requirements.

"A thing of beauty is a joy forever," so said one of our great writers. Everyone should love and admire beauty and that's why it's always a predominate joy for us to beautify and to modernize for you the most blissful spot on earth, your HOME. Home should come first because there is where we receive our rest and relaxation from our earthly toil. Let us make home-life pleasant and easy for you. We are equipped to make it a perfect joy, by installing a new modern heating system or putting running water in your home with a modern bath room complete. It's a sound investment and will be a lasting joy. We know you will like it. Just ask your neighbors who have already fixed theirs. See what they say.

We boast of the fact that we are unexcelled in the art of plumbing, wiring and heating. Give us a trial and see for yourself. We are also Authorized Dealers for Philco Refrigerators and Radios.

SCHOOL CREDITS

The following policies have been adopted by the State Board of Education with reference to the granting of high school credit for the educational training and experience received by persons while in the armed services:

1. High school credit may be given for training and experience received while in military service to any person who has not graduated from high school.

2. Superintendents of schools and high school principals are urged to use the Handbook that has been prepared by the American Council on Education for the purpose of determining the amount of credit that should be granted for the various courses and types of training in the armed services. The name of this publication is "A Guide to the Evaluation of Educational Experiences in the Armed Services."

3. High schools may issue regular diplomas according to either of the following plans:

(a) The high school may issue a regular diploma to a person in military service or to a veteran who has completed 12 or more units in regular high school attendance and who presents sufficient additional units of credit from the United States Armed Forces Institute, from Service Schools and from other educational programs in the armed forces to complete the school's requirements for graduation. Variations from this standard are subject to the approval of the Director of Supervision.

(b) The high school is permitted to issue a regular diploma, regardless of the number of units that a person in the service or a veteran has earned in high school, provided he has established through use of the General Educational Development Tests educational progress equal to or above that required for the high school.

It is further recommended that the high school require the examinee to satisfy either (not necessarily both) of the following requirements: (1) that he make a standard score of 35, or above, on each of the five tests in the battery, or (2) that he make an average standard score of 45, or above, on the five tests in the battery.

4. The diploma granted on the basis of military credits or on the basis of results on the General Educational Development Tests must be granted by the school in which the student last earned credit. In the case of a program with no high school credits and who has passed the General Educational Development Tests satisfactorily, he may be granted a diploma from a high school that is designed by the school authorities of the district in which he, if a veteran, now resides or in which he was a person in active service may designate as his residence.

5. The General Educational Development Tests will be given by the U. S. Armed Forces Institute or by the designated testing centers in the state that are approved by the State Board of Education.

6. The high school may grant as many as 2 units of credit for the satisfactory completion of the various basic (Army) or recruit (Navy) training programs.

COLLEGE ANNOUNCES GARDENING PROGRAM

Because of the serious food situation abroad, the White House Food Conference has requested that home gardening again be a major project wherever space is available, according to a statement from the Kentucky College of Agriculture and Home Economics. The production and conservation of foodstuffs in home gardens will help to replace other foods needed for shipment abroad, it was pointed out.

In compliance with the request, an intensive home gardening program under the direction of John S. Gardner, field agent in horticulture, will be gotten under way at once, with county and home agents and other staff members contributing to it.

To assure a variety of vegetables, a succession of crops should be planned. From the early garden should come the vegetables for canning as they are of better quality and there is less danger of drought. Early in the season there are fewer weeds and insects to fight, and the hardest work is done before the heat of mid-summer.

A late garden should also be planned to provide storage crops.

To aid town and city residents as well as rural families in making their plans, Circular 376, "The Garden Month by Month" is available from offices of county and home agents, or from the college Lexington.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend to our many friends our sincere thanks for their presence and favors shown us through the death of our brother, husband and father, John Sturgill who was killed in the Bell Craft Mine March 6th. We shall never forget you. May God share his blessings with each of you.

—His Brothers, Wife and Children.

He is not dead
He just passed from this life,
That is why we weep.
He just answered a call from heaven.
Gone for a peaceful sleep.

His life is a beautiful memory
His death a silent grief
He sleeps in God's beautiful garden
In sunshine of perfect peace.

We mourn for him in silence
No one can see us weep.
But many silent tears are shed
While others are asleep.

Always so unselfish, true and kind
Few in this world his equal You'll find.

A beautiful life that came to an end
He died like he lived, everyone's friend.

Resting those hands that did the best

Gone dear Brother, gone to rest.

(Sadly missed by his Brothers, Wife & Family).

Dinner guests of Mrs. D. D. Mrs. R. Monroe Fields, Mr. Fields and Miss Danola Fields and Mrs. Charles Blair and on Sunday were Judge and daughter.

EVERYBODY must have VITAMINS

Of course everybody gets SOME vitamins—survives—after that millions of people go on the "vitamin diet."

A pleasant, convenient remedy way to be sure you get your vitamins is to take ONE-A-DAY brand Vitamin E Complex tablets. An insufficient supply of Vitamin E Complex causes heart disease, cancer, arteriosclerosis, neuritis, rheumatism, diabetes, and other active causes for these conditions, too. You don't need to take more than ONE-A-DAY brand Vitamin E Complex tablet every day. Invested—(let your money work for you), always compare contents and prices.

Germans Are Going to Have a New Circus

HAMBURG, Germany, — Citizens of the Reich are going to have a new circus—not the kind the Nazis put on with Goering and Goebbels as chief clowns, but one with funny men, real animals and a tent.

Lorenz Hagenkelt announces he hopes to have his circus back on the road by April. His ticket was saved from the scrap heap by his participation in the Swedish in 1944 when Allied air attacks saved a tenting.

United States Seizes Philippine Hemp Fields

WASHINGTON — Acting to remedy the current "serious shortage" of hemp in this country, Alien Property Administration James E. Markham has announced seizure by the United States of the world's two largest Manila hemp plantations, the Furukawa and the Nanyang, and the Ohta Development company. Both concerns are near Davao, P. I. They controlled about 90 per cent of the world's grower hemp supply.
